I allow Tuesday Farmers' Market to use my business information to help promote and advertise the market at no additional cost to me. Information which may be used: Farm/Business Name and my name listed above, Products sold, Farm/Business website, e-mail address, and phone.

Food sold at the market must be grown or produced by the seller or a member of the vendor's organization. The Board may grant a special exemption, in writing, to re-sell foods that have been purchased directly from another local grower or producer (receipts may be required). All non-food items sold at market must be produced by the seller. No re-sell craft items will be permitted for sale at market. The Market Manager may demand to see proof of origin for any questionable products. The Tuesday Farmers' Market has the right to refuse the marketing of any produce or products, and the right to reject any vendor.

All vendors selling foods, nursery plants, and other regulated items must obtain the appropriate Licenses from the Wyoming Department of Agriculture and the City of Cheyenne. TFM requires that a copy of all licenses be obtained after board vendor approval. The licenses need to be submitted to market managers before setting up vendor's booth for the first time. If processed foods will be made and sold without health inspection under the guidelines of the Wyoming Cottage Food Bill or the Wyoming Food Freedom Act, please indicate this below and list all products included. (Wyoming vendors only).

All vendors must keep track of food and non-food sales and pay the required Wyoming State Sales Taxes on taxable items. It is the vendor's responsibility to remit taxes. Vendors will pay a market fee of 7% of honest gross sales each time they attend market, payment to be made before leaving market. An application fee of $20 is required for all new applications, that is, for vendors who have not previously attended this market. Vendors may not attend the market until notification is given by the market that the application is accepted. Vendors will be notified if the application is approved, put on waiting list or denied. All approved vendors must check in with the market manager at the beginning of each market.

Vendors should be set up and ready for the market 30 minutes before opening and should not start taking down until 6:00pm.

No electricity is available at market. Do you need electricity? If so, how do you plan to provide it?

Booth spaces will accommodate ONE 10x10 canopy, and ONE standard passenger vehicle. If you need additional space for display or larger vehicle, please make request here:

All vendors are urged to purchase liability insurance.

Please list in detail the items that you plan to sell. ANY items not grown/made by you must be listed here with the name and address of the producer. The market will notify you if your re-sale items are approved for sale. ONLY locally-produced food items that you purchase directly from the producer will be considered for re-sale. No re-sale craft items will be allowed.
