The Market Manager will be your contact if you are unable to attend the market.

Please contact them at MarketManager@Tuesdaymarket.org. Check in with the market manager at the beginning of each market. Vendors should be set up and ready for the market 15 minutes before opening and should not start taking down until 6:00pm.

An application fee of $40 is required for all applications. The application fee is non refundable.
Vendors may not attend the market until notification is given by the market that the application is accepted. New vendors will be notified if the application is approved, put on a waiting list, or denied. Returning vendors will be approved with the 2025 application being submitted to the market manager.

All vendors must have appropriate licenses and permits and submit them to the market manager before setting up the vendor's booth for the first time. It is the vendor's responsibility to collect and submit state sales taxes as appropriate.

Vegetables, Fruits, and Food Freedom Act: Food wagon license from the City of Cheyenne

Commercial Foods: Sales tax license from the WY Dept of Revenue, Food wagon license from the City of Cheyenne, produced in appropriately licensed kitchen

Crafts: Sales tax license from the WY Dept of Revenue

Plants: Nursery salesman from the WY Dept of Agriculture, sales tax license for the WY Dept of Revenue

Vendors will pay a market fee of 7% of honest gross sales each time they attend the market.
Payment will be collected at the end of each market. Any violation of this payment will result in removal from the market.

We live in Wyoming, every tent or umbrella is to be weighted with at least 40 lbs on each leg.
Wind is seemingly a constant in Cheyenne so please be aware of this and take caution on windy days.

I allow TFM to use my business information to help promote and advertise the market at no additional cost to me. Information which may be used: Farm/business name and owners name, products sold, farm/business website, e-mail address, and phone. Food sold at the market must be grown or produced by the seller or a member of the vendor's organization. The Board may grant a special exemption, in writing, to resell foods that have been purchased directly from another local grower or producer (receipts may be required). All non-food items sold at market must be produced by the seller. No resell craft items will be permitted for sale at market. The Market Manager may demand to see proof of origin for any questionable products. The Tuesday Farmers' Market has the right to refuse the marketing of any produce or products, and the right to reject any vendor.
